

Acute Critical Illness Claim Example

John wakes up in the hospital. He doesn't remember how he got there, but a doctor explains that he suffered a heart attack and his family called 911.

Major Medical Expenses

John pays the $1,250 deductible for his major medical insurance and is expected to copay 30%, or $5,852.40 of the remaining treatment costs.

Average cost of an inpatient hospital stay for a patient with a heart condition.¹

With Good Hands[®] protection from Allstate Benefits, John can recover easier knowing that he has help with his medical costs.

$15,000*

Critical Illness Insurance Benefit from Allstate Benefits

Which he can use toward his major medical bills, costs of ongoing treatment, or even to help with related caregiving expenses.

Allstate
BENEFITS

¹ <http://blog.heart.org/efforts-prevent-heart-disease-stroke-aim-curb-rising-medical-costs/>
Source: American Heart Association (www.blog.heart.org)

*This is an example of the total benefits that might be paid. The benefits shown are for coverage that includes a $15,000 basic benefit amount under policy GVCIP2 for most states. The benefits may vary by state and the example shown may vary from the coverage your employer is offering. Your individual experience may also vary.

Rev. 2/17. Coverage is provided by Limited Benefit Critical Illness Insurance. Group Critical Illness benefits are provided by policy form GVCIP2, or state variation thereof. Underwritten by American Heritage Life Insurance Company, Home Office, Jacksonville, FL. The coverage has exclusions and limitations and may have variations by state. For specifics about your coverage, costs and complete details of the coverage, refer to the product brochure or contact your Allstate Benefits Representative.

Allstate Benefits is the marketing name used by American Heritage Life Insurance Company, a subsidiary of The Allstate Corporation. ©2017 Allstate Insurance Company. www.allstate.com or allstatebenefits.com